

ITALIAN HONEY

Castagno e Acacia

Respect for the environment is the philosophy behind all our productions at Collazzi. The production of honey is very limited, but still very important. Our hives are located in various parts of the estate, where the bees can interact with a pristine environment.

This allows to obtain a consistent, small production of honey from mixed flowers and some selected trees.

Natural honey is the ideal companion of both fine cuisine, and simple, hearty foods.

